

Community coordinator

Tostan's mission is to empower communities to develop and achieve their vision for the future and inspire large-scale movements leading to dignity for all. Tostan is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization headquartered in Dakar, Senegal and operating in five West African countries.

Tostan's flagship model, the three-year Community Empowerment Program (CEP), has already reached thousands of communities in both West and East Africa since 1991. Impacts that change lives are in areas such as education, health, economic empowerment, governance and the environment. Tostan has been particularly proud to play a significant role in the large-scale empowerment of women and girls and the community-led abandonment of harmful practices such as female genital cutting and child marriage.

Strategically, the organization is committed to continuing to develop its core competency of empowering education and to documenting and scaling the sustainable impact it creates across a range of issues. Tostan is currently engaged in a strategic planning process that will shape the organization's strategic direction from 2023-2030

In partnership with civil society leaders around the world, Tostan is co-creating a new community of practice (CoP). About the TTC

Over the years, Tostan has received requests from individuals, community activists, organizations, philanthropists, and government officials to share its proven model for community-led development. In 2000, we first launched the Tostan Training Center (TTC) in Thiès, Senegal and began creating programs for training and sharing learning. In 2015, Tostan launched a revised and expanded program to support other partners and organizations to learn and apply its community, human rights-based approach and principles through a unique 10-day training course that uses a participatory, learner-centered approach. Our training serves individuals and groups who share a commitment to human dignity, transformative learning, holistic empowerment, and collective action. As of the end of 2021, Tostan had welcomed a total of 768 participants from 49 countries across four continents to the participatory seminars at the TTC.
